The Women's Challenge Welcomes Music Lovers For A Night In "LoveLand" With Their 3rd Annual Celebration of Love

January 31st Event to Feature Grammy-Nominated Artist Raheem Devaughn, Jazz-Soul Keyboardist Frank McComb and many more

Baltimore – Music Lovers can enjoy an enchanting night of love at a pre-Valentine's Day concert for this year's 3rd Annual Celebration of Love powered by The Women's Challenge, Inc. Featuring Grammy-nominated recording artist Raheem Devaughn and jazz keyboardist Frank McComb, this event will be held Friday, January 31, 2014 at the Goucher College Kraushaar Auditorium, located at 1021 Dulaney Valley Road, Baltimore, MD 21204 from 6pm-11pm.

All monies raised from the concert will benefit The Women's Challenge, Inc., a non-profit organization that seeks to creatively challenge today's women to be healthy by enriching their lives through interactive seminars and events focused on educating them in the specific areas of sexual health, physical activity, diet and nutrition, beauty concepts, financial empowerment and spiritual motivation.

"In all of our fundraising events, we use music as our muse to bridge the generation gap. Young or young-at-heart, we all relate to music in our own way. This year, our Celebration of Love features two outstanding artists, Maryland's own R&B sensation Raheem DeV Vaughn and smooth jazz keyboardist & vocalist Frank McComb," say Bailey-Carter, Founder & Woman of Vision for TWC.

Raheem Devaughn is a 3-time, Grammy-nominated R&B Soul singer and songwriter. His debut album, The Love Experience (2005), reached No. 46 on the Billboard 200 album chart, featuring the singles "Guess Who Loves You More" and "You." His second album Love Behind the Melody was released in January 2008, featuring the singles "Woman," and "Customer." DeV Vaughn was nominated for Best Male R&B Vocal Performance at the 2008 Grammy Awards for the single "Woman."

Often compared to Donny Hathaway and Stevie Wonder, Frank McComb is soul singer and keyboardist and has collaborated with many renowned recording artists including Prince, Chaka Khan, Teddy Pendergrass, Gerald Levert, and Teena Marie.

The Celebration of Love will also include opening performances by vocalist Marc Evans and all-female band Les Femme Totale. Radio One Magic 95.9FM's very own LaDawn Black will serve as the Mistress of Ceremony.

Ticket prices are: VIP ($75) which includes Raheem Devaughn's Vintage collection or Frank McComb's Best of 3 CD Pack and a dessert and candy station. Other ticket levels are as follows: Love I ($68), which includes dessert and candy station; Love II ($65), Jewels ($61), Red ($57) and Hearts ($53.) All tickets can be purchased at www.womenschallenge.net.
